The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2 and 5-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Gustavus. Gustavus shows a support member 25, base 12 rung engaging members 19,21 and leg at 23, and support arm at 23.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gustavus in view of Garret or Mabie. Gustavus shows the claimed device with the exception of the adjustable support arm. Garret in fig. 25 shows an adjustable support arm at 252. Mabie shows an adjustable support arm at 38 releasable connected to his base at 66. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Gustavus to comprise an adjustable support arm, as taught by either Garret or Mabie, for adjusting the inclination of his support member.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gustavus and either Garret or Mabie, as applied to claim 3 above, and further in view of Bitner. Bitner shows a level indicator at 34. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the support member of Gustavus with a level indicator, as taught by Bitner, to facilitate leveling of his support member.
